Jan Luchetti Interiors

MICHAEL J. LEE

Jan Luchetti Interiors began out of a love for creative design. Jan offers a full range of interior design services from her studio in Weston, Massachusetts. With more than 12 years of experience, Jan is involved in all aspects of the interior design process, enjoying projects large and small.

Jan's approach is thoughtful and straightforward as she creates living spaces for her clients that draw upon their individual expression and qualities. Incorporating a favorite object, color, or theme, Jan maximizes the use of space, merging beauty and style to achieve elegant, comfortable, and functional interiors that reflect each client's lifestyle.

Jan Luchetti Interiors is committed to the environment, combining luxury and sustainability whenever possible, ensuring that her projects are family- and earth-friendly. Jan's appreciation of sustainable decorating can enhance the form and function of striking design.

Projects include new construction, renovation, and project management for primary and secondary residences in Boston and surrounding areas, as well as Cape Cod, New Hampshire, and Colorado.
